ADAA-IESBA Panel Session

Session Date and Time
March 15, 2023 from 9:00 – 10:00 am UAE time.

Session Description
Information is the lifeblood of business, the financial markets and the economic system. The global accountancy profession plays a crucial role in enhancing public trust in that information within a robust regulatory framework.

The panel will discuss the role of ethics and the accountancy profession in enhancing ethical culture within organizations, the roles of the profession and other key players in the global fight against economic crime, and how putting ethics at the top of the business, public policy and regulatory agendas advances sustainability goals and protects the public interest.

Panelists
The panel will consist of two IESBA representatives and two ADAA representatives. The IESBA panelists will be:

- Gabriela Figueiredo Dias, Chair, IESBA
- Prof. Jens Poll, Board Member, IESBA

The ADAA representatives will be announced closer to the event.
